Explanatory Statement
(Pursuant to section 102 of the Companies Act, 2013)

Item no. 4:

The Board of Directors had appointed Mr. Jinen Manoj Shah (holding DIN 02922873), as an Additional Executive Director w.e.f. December 15, 2014 pursuant to Section 161(1) of the Companies Act, 2013 read with the Articles of Association of the Company. He is entitled to hold the office up to the date of the ensuing Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Company. In this regard the Company has received a request in writing from a member of the company proposing Mr. Jinen Manoj Shah as a candidate for appointment as Director of the Company.

The Board considers that the appointment of Mr. Jinen Manoj Shah as a Director would be beneficial to the company. Accordingly, the Board of Directors recommends his appointment as a Director of the Company whose period of office is liable to determination by retirement of directors by rotation.

Except Mr. Jinen Manoj Shah being proposed Director, none of the Directors and Key Managerial Personnel of the Company and their relatives is concerned or interested, financial or otherwise, in the resolution set out at Item No. 5. This Explanatory Statement may also be regarded as a disclosure under Clause 49 of the Listing agreement with the Stock Exchange.

Independent Auditors' Report

To,
The Members,
Leading Leasing Finance and Investment Company Limited

Report on the Financial Statements:

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of LEADING LEASING FINANCE AND INVESTMENT COMPANY LIMITED, which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31 March 2015, the Statement of Profit and Loss, the Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order 2015 issued by Government of India in terms of Section 143 (11) of the Companies Act, 2013, we enclose herewith in annexure.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements:

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014. This responsibility also includes the maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provision of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting the frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of internal financial control, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made hereunder.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the financial statements that give true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the financial statements.

Opinion:

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid financial statements, give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India;

- a) In the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2015;
- b) In the case of the Statement of Profit and Loss, of the profit for the year ended on that date; and
- c) In the case of the Cash Flow Statement, of the cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Annexure to the Independent Auditors' Report

The Annexure referred to in our Independent Auditors' Report to the members of LEADING LEASING FINANCE AND INVESTMENT COMPANY LIMITED for the year ended 31st March 2015, we report that:

- i.
 - a. The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars, including quantitative details and situation of fixed assets.
 - b. The Company has a regular programme of physical verification of its fixed assets by which fixed assets are verified in a phased manner over a period of three years. In accordance with this programme, certain fixed assets were verified during the year and no material discrepancies were noticed on such verification. In our opinion, this periodicity of physical verification is reasonable having regard to the size of the Company and the nature of its assets.
- ii. The physical verification of the inventories has been conducted at reasonable interval by the management. The procedures of physical verification of inventories followed by the management are reasonable and adequate in relation to the size of the company and the nature of its business. The company has maintained proper records of inventory and no material discrepancies were noticed on such physical verification and the same have been properly dealt with in the books of accounts.
- iii.
 - a. The Company has not granted loans, secured or unsecured, to companies, firms or other parties covered in the register maintained under section 189 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act').
 - b. In view of our comments in (a) above no further comments are warranted on receipt of principal amount and rate of interest on such loan.
 - c. There are no overdue amounts of more than rupees one lakh in respect of the loans granted to the bodies corporate listed in the register maintained under section 189 of the Act.
- iv. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, there is an adequate internal control system commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of its business with regard to purchase of fixed assets and sale of services. The activities of the Company do involve purchase of inventory and the sale of goods. We have not observed any major weakness in the internal control system during the course of the audit.
- v. The Company has not accepted any deposits from the public.
- vi. We are informed that maintenance of cost records has not been prescribed by the Central Government U/s 148 of the Act.
- vii.
 - a. According to the information and explanations given to us and on the basis of our examination of the records of the Company, amounts deducted/ accrued in the books of account in respect of undisputed statutory dues including provident fund, income tax, sales tax, wealth tax, service tax, duty of customs, value added tax, cess and other material statutory dues have been regularly deposited during the year by the Company with the appropriate authorities.

According to the information and explanations given to us, no undisputed amounts payable in respect of provident fund, income tax, sales tax, wealth tax, service tax, duty of customs, value added tax, cess and other material statutory dues were in arrears as at 31st March, 2015 for a period of more than six months from the date they became payable.

- b. According to the information and explanations given to us, there are no material dues of wealth tax, duty of customs and cess which have not been deposited with the appropriate authorities on account of any dispute.
 - c. No amount are required to be transferred to investor education and protection fund in accordance with the relevance provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and rules made there under.
- viii. In our Opinion, The Company does not have any accumulated losses at the end of the financial year and has not incurred cash losses in the financial year and in the immediately preceding financial year.
- ix. The Company did not have any outstanding dues to financial institutions, banks or Debenture holders during the year.
- x. In our opinion and according to the information and the explanations given to us, the Company has not given any guarantee for loans taken by others from banks or financial institutions.
- xi. The Company did not have any term loans outstanding during the year.
- xii. According to the information and explanations given to us, no material fraud on or by the Company has been noticed or reported during the course of our audit.

CORPORATE INFORMATION:

Leading Leasing Finance and Investment Company Limited is a Limited Company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956. The company is engaged in the Business of Non-Banking Finance Companies (NBFC).

Note: 1: SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

I) BASIS OF PREPARATION:

The Financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention and on the basis of going concern and in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) in India and applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 as amended including the disclosure requirements under Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006. All expenses and income to the extent considered payable and receivable respectively, except stated otherwise have been accounted for on accrual basis.

The Company is a Small and Medium Sized Company (SMC) as defined in the General Instructions in respect of Accounting Standards notified under the Companies Act, 1956. Accordingly, the Company has complied with the Accounting Standards as applicable to a Small and Medium Sized Company.

II) USE OF ESTIMATES:

The preparation of financial statements require estimates and assumptions to be made that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Difference between the actual results and estimates are recognized in the period in which the results are known / materialized.

III) REVENUE RECOGNITION:

All known income and expenditure quantifiable till the date of finalization of accounts are accounted on accrual basis when virtual certainty is established.

Interest and Other incomes are recognized on accrual basis, on time proportional basis, taking into account the amount outstanding and applicable rate.

IV) EXPENSES:

All major items of expenses are accounted for on accrual basis and necessary provisions for the same are made on a prudent basis.

V) FIXED ASSETS & DEPRECIATION:

Fixed Assets are stated at their historical cost. Addition to fixed assets comprise of its purchase and expenses attributable with the same including taxes. Depreciation is provided on written down value basis on the manner, and at the prescribed in schedule XIV of the companies Act, 1956.

On disposal of the Fixed Assets, the difference between the carrying amount and its sale proceeds is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss as "Profit/Loss on sale of Fixed Assets"

VI) INVESTMENTS:

Investments are classified into current and non-current investments.

Current Investments are those investments which are readily convertible or that are acquired with the purpose of disposing the same within a period of 12 months or from the date of its acquisition. All other investments are non-current investments.

There are no Current investments in the company.
Non-current investments are stated at cost.

On disposal of the investments, the difference between the carrying amount of investments and its disposal value is charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss as "Profit/Loss on sale of investments".

VII) TAXES ON INCOME:

Current income tax expense comprises taxes on income from operations in India only. Income tax payable in India is determined in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Minimum alternative tax (MAT) provisions are applicable to the company however MAT is not payable by the Company for the reporting period.

Deferred tax expense or benefit is recognised on timing differences being the difference between taxable income and accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

In the event of unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward of losses, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that there is virtual certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available to realize such assets. In other situations, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available to realize these assets.

The Company offsets deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities if it has a legally enforceable right and these relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing taxation laws.

IX) IMPAIRMENT OF ASSETS:

An asset is treated as impaired when the carrying cost of that asset exceeds its recoverable value.

The company assesses at each reporting date whether there is any indication that the asset may be treated as impaired. If such indication exists, then the company provides for the impairment losses in the Statement of Profit and Loss in accordance with Accounting Standard-28: "Impairment of Assets".

There are no assets that are impaired as on the reporting date as per company's assessment.

X) EARNINGS PER SHARE:

The Earnings Per Share (EPS) is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss attributable to the equity shareholders by weighted average number of equity shares outstanding at the end of the year. The weighted average number of Equity Shares is arrived at after taking into consideration the bonus issue, rights issue, buy back etc. if any, during the year.

XI) PROVISIONS AND CONTINGENT LIABILITIES:

A provision is recognized when the company has a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that the outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will occur to settle that obligation. The company recognizes the provision on the basis of best available estimates. These estimates are reviewed at each reporting date to reflect the current situation.

Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets are neither recognised nor disclosed in the financial statements but are shown by way of a note to the Financial Statements.

XII) CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS:

The Company considers all highly liquid financial instruments, which are readily convertible into cash and have original maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase, to be cash equivalents.
